

Drama at Blessed Trinity. . .

Thank you for your interest in Theatre Camps at Blessed Trinity! We are building on last year's big success, offering Acting (6/1-5) and Musical Theatre (6/8-12) along with a Tech Track for both weeks and a NEW Director's workshop. Our camps have become an important part of the theatre program at BT, and every year we're amazed at the talented young people we're privileged to work with. We believe our students learn important lessons for on and off stage. We hope to see you there.

ACTING CAMP FAQs

What should I bring?

- Wear loose, comfortable clothes
- Wear tennis shoes
- Your talent and enthusiasm

What should I not bring?

Video games, radios, headsets, anything that will distract you from working as a team. And please don't bring valuable items.

What about lunch?

Please bring a sack lunch Monday-Thursday.

Will there be a performance?

Each camp will have a performance of selected scenes on Friday evening.

What will I have to do?

Every student will be required to perform for the group and participate in the final performance. That means learning lines and songs!!

SPECIAL FEATURES

Acting Camp:

Basic or Advanced?

Students may choose the advanced track who have:

- Attended the fundamentals camp
- Attended a BT camp in the past
- Taken an acting class at BT
- Auditioned

There are no separate tracks for the Musical Theatre Camp.

Musical Theatre Camp

Our initial Musical Theatre Camp was a huge success last year. Musical Theatre Camp will allow students to present complete scenes and songs with movement and characterization. For those who love musicals, this camp is a must!

Tech Theatre Track!

We will accept a limited number of technical theatre students for each week of camp. Tech students will learn lighting, sound, props, and back-stage management. Love theatre, but too shy for the stage? Try our tech track! Tech track is for rising 7th graders and up only.

Director's Workshop

High school students may apply for our NEW director's workshop during acting camp (June 1-5 only). Students will cast and direct ten-minute plays in a collaborative environment. Applicants must be approved by instructor.
